“ATTORNEY ZUKERMAN was more than just an attorney; she was like a family member. She understood what I was going through, emotionally and legally, and was very empathetic. She gave me the courage to follow through with certain procedures and got me a great result – exactly what I wanted. Mediating my divorce was good for my whole family. Roz helped me stay out of court and everything that she did for me was worth every penny!”
- Suzanna Griffith

"ATTORNEY ZUKERMAN is an amazing lady with the highest ethics, super organized and cuts right to the chase! She has a sense of humor that really helped me when I was going through a dissolution and custody matter. When I arrived at her office, I was comforted by her level of professionalism, her taking of copious notes, and her introductions to her staff. Most importantly, she got me a very favorable outcome. I credit her with the success of my life and my life decisions ever since." - Eugenia Zacks-Carney

A VALUABLE MEDIATION RESOURCE

When mediators hit a roadblock, where one party is unable to budge and the other is not offering fairness in the process, Family Law Attorney Rosaline Zukerman can help.

In her role as a consultant to mediators, Roz brings a long, varied background in education, counseling and law to the mediation practice. She is adept in her ability to defuse emotionally-charged situations to bring parties together and level the playing field.
